

Treading Into Summer

The Shoes of Summer 2024

SUMMER 2024 IS JUST AROUND THE CORNER AND YOUR SHOE GAME IS SOMETHING TO REALLY BE CONSIDERED. BELOW ARE WHAT YOU SHOULD EXPECT EVERYONE TO BE WEARING WHILE OUT AND ABOUT IN THE SUN.

Adidas Sambas: The perfect small sneaker to pair with any outfit. We have seen the rise of Sambas over this year, and the summer will prove to be no different, especially with the inclusion of bright summer colors.

Birks

Birkenstocks: Now, the Birkenstock have proven to be a staple summer sandel time and time again. However, I am predicting that we will see not only more of the Classic Arizona style that everyone knows and loves, but also more of the Boston soft style as well.

Hokas: The Hoka tennis shoe took last summer by storm, and this summer is looking to be no different. With its bright colors and insane comfortability, purchasing a pair of Hokas is arguably a must.

New Balance 327

New Balance 327: The ultimate chunky sneaker to complete your summer wardrobe. These are the perfect pair that work to dress up a cute summer outfit, or just to wear with shorts and a T-shirt. Not to mention, with a variety of neutral based colors, they can work with almost anything you please.

Hey Dudes: So incredibly comfy and one of my personal favorite slip on shoes. I cannot count the number of times I am going out the door in the summer to go to the pool, lake, work, or just hang out in the sun and i slip my Dues on. They perfectly mold to my feet and there is an extremely wide range of colors and patterns you can choose from.
